

From the University of Eswatini, Swaziland

01/07/2019

University of Eswatini Advert:

The Department of Curriculum and Teaching, Faculty of Education needs two External Examiners, One examiner for Science and Mathematics Education, and another for Languages Education in the Department of Curriculum and Teaching. The external examiners will moderate examination papers for undergraduate and post graduate courses in October/November and March/April in an academic year. They will also externalise (read) M.Ed. theses in their areas of specialisation in November/December and April/May and preside over oral examinations for those theses in January/February and May/June. Oral examinations are conducted via Skype or video conferencing.

Anyone, of Professorial level, interested in assisting the Department can kindly forward their electronic CVs to minenhle@uniswa.sz . Do not hesitate to contact Dr Minenhle Ngcobo if more information is required.

Minenhle Ngcobo

Head of Department of Curriculum and Teaching